

August 30, 2010 – Press Release

September 5th is the 2nd Annual Breast Cancer Benefit Concert at Up A Creek tavern in Howland, Ohio. Last years event was a nice success and this year's concert will be another impressive reunion of many local music pioneers that contributed to the N.E. Ohio music history. The line up for the show this year will feature musicians from the Warren/ Howland area, dating back to the mid 60s early rock and roll era. "The Holes in the Road" will make an appearance with remaining members: Doug Thomas, Gary McCoy, Dave Pack and Gary Sloas. Glass Harp, the Shaddows, L.A.W. MF Rattlesnake, Mom's Apple Pie, My Uncles Army Buddies... are some of the other bands from that era being represented this year by: John Sferra, Dave Mazzochi, Steve Acker, Dennis Csiszer, Ron Koloskee, Bob Miller, Doug Thomas and Grammy winner Roger Hatfield. Plus many more...

THE TMH
FOUNDATION

Organizer and founder of this event, Tommy McCoy, will be the host again this year with help from Madam Weez and Damian Knapp. Mark Matash, owner of Up a Creek, will again be donating the barbeque and the venue for this great cause. Chef Anthony will be contributing his talent with a little help from TJ Taylor. The Music Center in Niles, will be donating an auction guitar again this year. Last years guitar sold at $1,000.00. Many of the artists donate CDs and T-Shirts and there will be a forthcoming DVD from the Professor of last year and this year combined, with some old footage from a 1966 dance at the Howland Canteen (courtesy Richard Obertots).

This years corporate sponsor is Microphome.com . This is a new disinfectant/deodorizer foam for mics and audio equipment. All of the musicians are donating their time and talent, many traveling from out of town. All proceeds are donated to a comfort fund for breast cancer patients at the Ireland Cancer Center at Trumbull Memorial Hospital in Warren (in honor of Vicki Taylor McCoy RN who passed away from breast cancer in 1997.) Dorothy Kvesich is donating A Beatle collection of her late daughter Susan Kvesich, for auction as well. The cover charge at the door is $10 dollars and the event is planned from noon to 10pm Sept. 5th.
